Re: Transcript for State v. Rodney Lincoln

Dear Ms. Price:

On September 29 and 30, 1983, I received phone calls concerning transcripts you had promised in two different cases. One case, State v. Rodney Lincoln, was originally a mistrial and a transcript was needed to start the trial in Division 23 today. The attorneys indicate you were given a substantial money deposit and that you guaranteed the transcript be furnished last week. Although you are officially on vacation this week, this matter must be straightened out.

Of great concern to me is the fact that I was unable to reach you last week; your phone had been disconnected, and upon investigation today I discovered from the Hazelwood Post Office that you have left a forwarding address in Kansas. Is it your intention to terminate your employment here?

You must contact me as soon as possible to clear up these matters. If I am not available you are to leave a number where you can be reached. My phone number is (314) 622-4426. All of your paychecks will be held until these matters are satisfactorily settled.

Very truly yours,

Stanley D. Brown
